

The University of Kansas Department of Theatre & Dance (<https://theatredance.ku.edu>) invites applications for an Assistant or Associate Specialist to serve as Production Manager for the Theatre & Dance Performance Season. This unclassified academic staff position is an academic year (9-month), appointment to begin in August 2022.

The Production Manager will have responsibilities in the following: (1) teaching and advising students in technical production through practicum laboratories and stage management courses; (2) production management of the University Theatre and University Dance Company season; and (3) professional development and service.

In a continuing effort to enrich its academic environment and provide equal education and employment opportunities, the university actively encourages applications from members of underrepresented groups in higher education. The successful candidate must be eligible to work in the U.S. by the effective date of the appointment.

Requirements include a bachelor's degree and three years' minimum experience in performing arts operations in a professional theater or university performing arts setting, specifically as a production manager or member of production management team OR an MFA in the arts.

For complete information and to apply go to <https://employment.ku.edu/academic/20950BR>.

Initial review of the position will begin on February 10, 2022 and continue until filled. For additional information, contact Search Chair Michelle Hayes at mhayes@ku.edu. KU is an EO/AAE, full policy at <http://policy.ku.edu/IOA/nondiscrimination>.